

THE STAGE COACH INN
HARPERS FERRY, W. VA.

From this building stages used to ply between Harpers Ferry and Washington City, now Washington, D.C., a distance of approx. 58 miles. This is the original building constructed in 1859, prior to John Brown's raid. At the top of the picture can be seen St. Peter's Catholic Church, which has not suspended services since 1830 to the present day.

Color by Frank D. Kelley

Published by Kelley's Studio, 202 N. Potowmac St., Hagerstown, Md.

S-24493-3

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD

Address